

ILLUSTRATION OF COST WITH TIMELINE

For one nursing program within the same nursing education unit*

STEP 1: CANDIDACY

A nursing program seeks Candidacy in October 2016. The program pays the one-time CANDIDACY FEE after eligibility has been confirmed through the submission of the required CANDIDACY ELIGIBILITY APPLICATION. The fee covers the entire candidacy mentoring program and the entire candidacy period. Upon approval of the CANDIDACY PRESENTATION the program is granted Candidacy and is now able to seek initial accreditation within two (2) calendar years of being granted Candidacy (e.g., 10/17/16 to 10/17/18).

$2,500.00*

STEP 2: INITIAL ACCREDITATION

The candidate nursing program seeks initial accreditation, pays the one-time INITIAL ACCREDITATION FEE after submission of the required INFORMATION FORM. The Information Form is submitted by the required due date for a fall 2017 site visit.

$1,000.00*

The program hosts the initial accreditation site visit in fall 2017, which is composed of three (3) peer evaluators and scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday (peers arrive Monday; depart Thursday).

$8,235.00*
(3x $915/peer evaluator per day)

The ACEN Board of Commissioners grants initial accreditation for five (5) years at its March, 2018 meeting. The newly accredited program pays its first accreditation fee, which is billed in about mid-April.
