ACEN Accreditation Manual – Supplement for International Programs

POSITION STATEMENT ON ACCREDITATION OF INTERNATIONAL NURSING EDUCATION PROGRAMS

ACEN is committed to quality in all types of nursing education programs and encourages self-evaluation, peer review, and the promotion of educational equity, access, and mobility through the functions of accreditation. Recognizing that educational institutions are expanding their programs to foster access and that such expansion initiatives increasingly involve global outreach efforts, ACEN will extend the benefits of accreditation to include those programs with activities of global engagement.

ACEN asserts that accreditation is a voluntary, self-regulatory process by which non-governmental entities recognize educational institutions or programs that have been found to meet or exceed standards and criteria for educational quality. ACEN acknowledges that nursing education programs located outside of the United States and its territories can benefit from adherence to best practices and generally-accepted guidelines for nursing education incorporated in the ACEN Standards and Criteria. In order to fulfill its mission to support the interests of nursing education, nursing practice, and the public, ACEN seeks to broaden the impact of accreditation to encompass nursing education programs across the globe.

Therefore, in a spirit of cooperation, openness, and mutual respect consistent with its organizational values, ACEN has initiated the development of a model for accreditation and related services for international nursing education programs.

APPROVED BY BOC FEBRUARY 26, 2010
ELIGIBILITY

Nursing education programs in any location must meet the following eligibility requirements as listed in the Accreditation Manual, Policy # 3:

- Placement within a governing organization that is accredited by an approved accrediting agency or holds unconditional approval by the appropriate regulatory agency that has legal authority for education programs.
- Placement within a governing organization that is authorized to grant the credential awarded at the completion of the program.

Nursing education programs located outside the United States must meet the following additional eligibility requirements.

- Program faculty and students must speak and understand English proficiently. The program must produce all documents and written materials required for the accreditation processes in English. All fiscal documents must be in English with currency equivalents in U.S. dollars.
- Program has been in operation for a minimum of five (5) years and has graduated a minimum of three (3) classes of nursing graduates.
- The region in which the program is located must not be identified as hazardous for travel by the U.S. State Department at the time of the travel for the ACEN site visitors and/or staff.
- Program must agree to host a minimum of two (2) onsite visits, including a mandatory onsite consultation visit and the onsite accreditation visit. [Note: Nursing education units seeking accreditation for a second nursing program have the option of deferring the consulting visit as a component of the candidacy process.]
- Program has financial resources adequate to meet all fiscal responsibilities related to the ACEN accreditation processes including International Candidacy Eligibility Application, Candidacy, and two (2) onsite visits.
- The nursing program must establish and provide documentation that it has obtained requisite governmental and regulatory approval to seek ACEN accreditation.

INTERNATIONAL PROCESSES AND PROCEDURES

Nursing education units that are located outside the U.S. considering accreditation by ACEN should contact ACEN to begin the process. International programs must complete and submit the International Candidacy Eligibility Application to determine their eligibility for International Candidacy. The International Candidacy Eligibility Application must be accompanied by an International Candidacy Eligibility Application fee. See fee schedule at this link: http://www.acenursing.net/resources/intlfees2016_Revised_010616.pdf. Half of the International Candidacy Eligibility Application fee will be refunded if the program is determined not to be eligible for accreditation by ACEN.

ACEN professional staff determine a program’s eligibility and suitability for ACEN accreditation by reviewing the International Candidacy Eligibility Application. Possible results of the review include the following:

a. The program is deemed eligible to pursue International Candidacy.
b. The program is asked to submit additional information/clarification.
c. The program is deemed ineligible to pursue International Candidacy and will be withdrawn from the process.
International nursing education programs determined to be eligible for International Candidacy will be scheduled for a mandatory onsite consultation visit. In preparation for the onsite consultation visit, programs will submit an International Candidacy Presentation, which will be provided to site visitors a minimum of twelve (12) weeks prior to the onsite visit.

The International Candidacy Presentation will address the following:

- Qualifications and position description for the nurse administrator;
- Faculty academic and experiential qualifications for all faculty or instructional personnel teaching in the nursing program;
- The entire curriculum/program of study including materials related to all courses;
- Resources to deliver the program including learning resources, facilities (classrooms, laboratories, clinical and offices), technology, and fiscal resources; and
- Quantified student learning outcomes and program outcomes.

The onsite consultation visit will be conducted by at least one (1) ACEN program evaluator and one (1) member of the ACEN professional staff. The purpose of the onsite consultation visit is to determine whether a program may proceed with the candidacy process. Following the onsite consultation visit, a Consultation Visit Report (CVR) is submitted by the site visitors. Based on the recommendations of the site visitors in the CVR, ACEN will take one (1) of the following actions:

1. Approval of International Candidacy: The nursing program (a) demonstrated it is currently compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed or demonstrated the potential to be compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed within two (2) years of notification, and (b) demonstrated the potential to achieve ACEN accreditation based upon the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed. The onsite initial accreditation visit is to be scheduled within one (1) year of notification. Approval of International Candidacy does not guarantee that the program will achieve initial accreditation.

2. Extension of Time to Achieve Candidacy: The nursing program (a) made an inconsistent presentation to demonstrate it is currently compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed or made an inconsistent presentation to demonstrate the potential to be compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed within two (2) years of notification, and (b) made an inconsistent presentation to demonstrate the potential to achieve ACEN accreditation based upon the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed. The Program is advised to complete specified actions/implement specific changes or modifications within one (1) year of notification. To proceed, the program must submit an International Candidacy Presentation Addendum within one (1) year of notification describing how the recommended actions/concerns have been addressed. When a program is not able to (a) demonstrate it is currently compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed or demonstrate the potential to be compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed or (b) the potential to achieve ACEN accreditation based upon the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed, within one (1) year of notification, ACEN withdraws the program and discontinues the candidacy process. If the Addendum is approved by the ACEN professional staff, International Candidacy is approved with the onsite accreditation visit to be scheduled within one (1) year of notification.

3. Disapproval of International Candidacy: The nursing program (a) did not demonstrate it is currently compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed or did not demonstrate the potential to be compliant with the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed within two (2) years of notification, and (b) did not demonstrate the potential to achieve ACEN accreditation based upon the ACEN Standards and Criteria reviewed. ACEN withdraws the program from the accreditation process.
ACEN Accreditation Manual – Supplement for International Programs

Programs not approved for International Candidacy must wait for a minimum of one (1) year of notification before re-applying. No fees will be refunded if a program is withdrawn.

4. Program is not eligible: ACEN withdraws the program from the process. No fees will be refunded if a program is withdrawn.

SELF-REVIEW AND SELF-STUDY REPORT

The sections of the ACEN Accreditation Manual available online at www.acenursing.org related to the Self-Review and Self-Study Report apply to all programs, including those located outside the United States and the U.S. territories. All programs electing to participate in accreditation activities are required to abide by the policies and procedures as outlined in the Accreditation Manual.
